CLIFTON, NJ, MARCH 16, 2009: Challenge Training & Consulting, Inc. (CTC); a leading Learning Services, Staff Augmentation and Consulting Services provider is pleased to announce that it is completely updating its corporate Web Site and Marketing Collateral.

Frank Pinto (the company's CEO & President) recently commented that our company has added many new courses and services in the past few years. We have also successfully completed a number of unique and innovative projects which have significantly benefited our diverse client base. I strongly feel that due to present economic conditions that it is of paramount importance to re-invest in CTC; in order to drive additional sales with our existing and prospective clients. We are very proud of our completely updated Web Site and Marketing Collateral and know they will both have a positive impact regarding our business development efforts in 2009 and beyond.

Our Web Site and Marketing Collateral will now very clearly communicate that CTC currently develops and delivers a wide variety of Training Courses in Information Technology, Regulatory Compliance, Human Resources and Sales via Instructor Led Training and "e" Learning. The company also provides innovative consulting services along with strategic sourcing, and staff augmentation services.
